Application granted. For clarity of the record, all deadlines and submissions (including those related to the Shen Yun Defendants), associated with Plaintiff John Doe's motion to seal (Doc. 70), are adjourned sine die, and will be addressed at the conference on June 12, 2025.

SO ORDERED.

Philip M. Halpern
United States District Judge

Dated: White Plains, New York

Re: Chang et al. v. Shen Yun Performing Arts, Inc., et al., Case No. 7:24-cv-8980 (PMH)

May 23, 2025

Dear Judge Halpern:

We represent all of the Defendants in this case except the International Bank of Chicago. On behalf of our clients, we had prepared a memorandum of law in opposition to the motion of Plaintiff John Doe to proceed under a pseudonym and to submit evidence to the Court ex parte (ECF No. 70).

Yesterday, we received Your Honor's Order (ECF No. 79) suspending deadlines for responses to that motion, but it did not indicate whether our clients, who had not yet made a submission, should proceed to do so. Given that there will be a conference call among the parties and the Court on June 12, we propose to defer our submission until that time, unless the Court directs us otherwise.

We are grateful for Your Honor's attention.

Yours sincerely,

Steven M. Schneebaum
Counsel for the Shen Yun Defendants
